EXHIBIT A

(July 19, 2012)

MAUNA LANI RESORT ASSOCIATION ASSOCIATION RULES

The primary purpose of these "Association Rules" is to promote the peace, comfort, safety and general welfare of owners, occupants and tenants of property within the Mauna Lani Resort Association ("MLRA"), and to protect owners, occupants and guests of property within the MLRA from annoyance and nuisance caused by improper use of the Common Property, in accordance with the Declaration of Covenants & Restrictions of the Mauna Lani Resort Association ("Declaration").

These "Association Rules" represent the rules for the Mauna Lani Resort Association ("MLRA"), and supplement, but do not change, the obligations of owners, occupants and tenants contained in the Declaration.

Subject to Article II, Section 6 of the Declaration, the Board from time to time may adopt, amend and repeal rules and regulations to be known as the Association Rules governing, among other things: (a) the use of the Common Property; (b) the use of the roads owned by the Association; (c) the collection and disposal of refuse; (d) the burning of open fires; and, (e) the maintenance of animals within the MLRA.

I. USE OF THE COMMON PROPERTY

A. Fishponds

The system of brackish water ponds within the Mauna Lani Resort Association (MLRA) Historic Fishpond Complex is designated and zoned as a State & County Preservation Area.

- No swimming, fishing or netting activities shall take place within the Historic Fishpond Complex without the prior written approval of the MLRA.
- Pathways within the Historic Fishpond Complex shall be closed to pedestrian and vehicular traffic after 10:00 PM unless the prior written approval of the MLRA is obtained.
- Vehicular traffic within the Historic Fishpond Complex shall be limited to MLRA maintenance vehicles only unless the prior written approval of the MLRA is obtained.

B. Seawall Pathway (Oceanfront Pathway Connecting the Boathouse to Eva Parker Woods Cottage)

- Bicycles shall be walked instead of ridden along the seawall pathway.
- Handicap carts/wheelchairs should be driven through the pathways within the Fishpond Complex; the oceanfront seawall pathway is not deemed safe for handicap carts/wheelchairs.

C. Beach Club

- Vehicles shall be parked within designated stalls marked for parking only.
- Parking stalls designated for Golf Cart Parking are reserved for golf carts, electric carts, and other similar "efficiency vehicles".

II. USE OF THE ROADS OWNED BY THE ASSOCIATION

- All drivers shall comply with posted speed limits.
- Golf carts, electric carts and other "efficiency vehicles" operated during "nighttime hours" (i.e., the period 30 minutes after sunset through 30 minutes prior to sunrise) shall be equipped with brake lights and headlights.
- The number of passengers in a golf cart, electric cart or other "efficiency vehicle" shall comply with the capacity specifications and safety recommendations recommended by the cart manufacturer.
- Motorized flotation/low-pressure tired vehicles (popularly referred to as "ATVs" or "All-Terrain Vehicles") shall not be operated within the Common Property, except by MLRA personnel in the course of conducting Common Area Maintenance.
- Members shall comply with all signage regarding access restrictions within the Common Property.
- No on-street parking is permitted. Vehicles shall be parked in designated stalls marked for parking only.

III. ANIMALS WITHIN THE MLRA COMMON PROPERTY

- For the safety of other members, service animals shall be properly restrained and secured at all times.
- Service animals shall not be permitted on beach chairs, cabanas, and other furniture owned by the MLRA.
- Owners of service animals are responsible for the prompt clean-up and proper disposal of all animal waste.
